EARLY
FORD V-8
FOUNDATION

Our goal is to preserve Ford history for future generations.

The Early Ford V-8 Foundation was created in 1991 as a non-profit, educational organization dedicated to "Preserving 1932-1953 Early Ford V-8 History." This includes all related materials produced by the Ford Motor Company during this period, including cars and trucks. The Foundation currently has a newly constructed 8,000 square foot building on 2.5 acres of land in Auburn, Indiana. This "Phase I" structure will be used for storage of our growing collection of Ford artifacts and memorabilia, some of which is now being stored in two separate automotive museums: the Towe Museum of Automotive History in Sacramento, CA. and the Don Garlits Museum in Ocala, FL. Much of the remaining Ford items are being stored by foundation members until the primary museum building is constructed. In the meantime an ongoing effort is being made by the Foundation to seek out and acquire significant and important pieces of Ford history for the education of future generations and to create an Funding from membership dues, donations from concerned organizations and individuals is what fuels the progress of the Early Ford V-8 Foundation's vision. For only $25.00 you will become an Early Ford V-8 Foundation member for 1 year and receive our informative, bi monthly newsletter. Your donation is not only greatly appreciated but is essential to the success of our preservation program in keeping Ford history accessible for the education of future generations.
